

Furia Francese

The name origin

From the Italian furia francese, "French fury"
A term used by the Italians to describe the fierceness of the French during the Battle of Fornoue in July 1495.

Our motto

Without fear.
&
Without reproach.

Teammates :

LYNX57 Captain and reservist

Feline player passionate about military history, strategy games over all periods. I am interested in literature, science fiction, scientific news, I am also music lover and open-minded.

FREDERIC02 600 BC to 100 BC

A veteran of games that combine history and strategy, I love all-period history with a preference for ancient Greece. I also love art in all its forms, science fiction, law and many other things ...

LANNES 99 BC to 499 AD

A veteran of games that combine history and strategy, I love all-period history with a preference for ancient Rome and WW1 and WW2. I also love, science fiction, fantasy and history boardgames and tabletop.

VADIM84 500 AD to 1010 AD

I grew up daydreaming of the Ancient world and, in many ways, FOG 2 is a childhood dream coming true. Perhaps, as it woke up my inner child, it should not come as a surprise that I swear profusely during each and every round I play. Other than that, a weird passion for blunders.

TIMTOM LE GRAND 1011 to 1300 AD

Student in History, the thematics that I prefer are the french Revolution + the first french empire and the uprisings/disorders in Europe between the two world wars. I began wargames on computers during my childhood with the Total war serie (first with Rome then Empire and Napoleon) and on boardgames with Memory 44. Apart from History and wargames I'm also passionate by music and Role playing games.